ABOUT HAWAII COMPENSATION GROUP (HICOMP)

The Hawaii Compensation Group (HICOMP), in association with WorldatWork, is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing education, support and development in total rewards including compensation, benefits, worksite wellness, work-life effectiveness, and talent development.

HICOMP's mission is to serve the needs of Human Resource and Total Rewards professionals in Hawaii by providing resources to support the Total Rewards practice and pursuit of the Certified Compensation Professional. We are committed to providing invaluable educational and networking opportunities to advance the expertise of professionals in the discipline of Total Rewards, to ensure member value in those seeking professional development or the pursuit of their Certified Compensation Professional designation and execution of organizational total reward strategies within the companies they serve.

Our members represent a diverse array of industries, including government agencies on all islands in Hawaii, inclusive of entry-level practitioners to executive level individuals in the Human Resources and Total Rewards profession.

TARGET AUDIENCE

The Hawaii 2024 Total Rewards Symposium is designed for full-time Total Rewards professionals, including those who specialize in compensation, benefits, well-being, executive compensation, as well as HR generalists and business partners who require an understanding of Total Reward topics. Our participants range from executive/management to independent contributor roles. We anticipate over 150 participants from across Hawaii who build reward programs and strengthen organizational performance through total rewards delivery.
